Rick L. Stevens Appointed President of Methodist McKinney Hospital

MCKINNEY, TEXAS March 22, 2011 – The Methodist McKinney Hospital Board of Managers recently announced the appointment of Rick L. Stevens to the position of president of the hospital.

Stevens comes to Methodist McKinney from the JPS Health Network in Fort Worth, Texas where he most recently served as the vice president of operations/administrator. Prior to JPS, he served in leadership roles at health care organizations in Louisville, Kentucky; Arlington, Texas; and Dallas, Texas. Stevens brings extensive experience in overseeing new development projects and a familiarity in engaging physicians in all areas of medical operations.

As president of Methodist McKinney, Stevens will oversee the facility's outpatient and inpatient services. According to board members, Stevens' character and experience will complement the mission of Methodist McKinney Hospital, which is dedicated to providing high-quality surgical care in a comfortable, patient and family-oriented environment.

Stevens' professional involvement includes service on the Boards of the North Texas Chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives, American Red Cross-Chisholm Trail Chapter, and American Cancer Society-Tarrant County. He was a member of the 2008 Leadership Fort Worth class, and serves as national treasurer for the National Association of Health Services Executives. He was recognized in 2001 by the National Association of Health Services Executives with the Young Healthcare Executive of the Year Award, and in 2005 by Modern Healthcare's with the Up and Comers Award.
